Circle of the Word welcomes local author, Angie Hyche

Monday, April 10,
11:00am – 1:30pm, Meeting Room
Members of the Circle of the Word would like to invite you to join us to hear Angie Hyche, local author of a book we have been studying this year, Unholy Mess: What the Bible Says About Clutter. We will gather in the Meeting Room and also eat lunch together.

Angie will offer ideas about making decisions on downsizing and distributing personal and family belongings. She will also share her experience helping a downtown church organize their storage spaces. There will be time set aside for asking questions.

If you have questions or would like to join us, please contact Susan Lodal at susan.lodal@gmail.com or 423-341-5633 and let her know so we can plan for your attendance. Attendees are asked to bring a salad to share with others. Circle members will also provide salads, plus drinks and the speaker's fee.

232 Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

1 Je - sus Christ is risen to - day,
 2 Hymns of praise then let us sing, Al - le - lu - ia!
 3 But the pains which he en - dured,
 4 Sing we to our God a - bove,

our tri - um - phant ho - ly day,
 un - to Christ, our heaven - ly King, Al - le - lu - ia!
 our sal - va - tion have pro - cured.
 praise e - ter - nal as God's love.

who did once up - on the cross,
 who en - dured the cross and grave, Al - le - lu - ia!
 Now a - bove the sky he's King,
 Praise our God, ye heaven - ly host,

It seems likely that this beloved Easter text began in Latin and moved through German before reaching English, where it combined with the present tune in the emerging English evangelical style, a reaction to the restrained one-note-per-syllable psalmody that preceded it.

The verbal and musical elements of this hymn mesh so well because the words were written to fit this Dutch tune (whose name means "fruits"). The news of Christ's resurrection is joyfully conveyed by the ever-higher phrases and final cascade of notes at the end of the refrain.
